Dementia service

Peninsula Practice is collaborating with the Alzheimer's Society to develop an in-house service for our patients who are worried about their memory. We know there are many people nationally with dementia who have not been assessed for dementia and are therefore unaware of their condition. However, there are treatments and support that can significantly help delay progression if it is identified sooner than later.

If you or a loved one has concerns about your memory, please contact the surgery to arrange a full memory assessment.
